Noosa Queensland Day Awards

Now in its fourth year, the 2019 Noosa Queensland Day Award Ceremony will be held on Thursday June 6, 2019 at The 'J', Noosa Heads.

Queensland Day is the perfect day to recognise great Queenslanders, particularly Noosa locals who dedicate their time to helping others.

If you belong to a registered not for profit group such as a sporting club, a charity, a community organisation, or if you provide pro-bono services in the Noosa Electorate, simply register the person you believe should receive a Queensland Day Award medallion and a certificate of recognition at the Noosa Queensland Day Award ceremony.

Please make sure you are nominating someone who has not previously received this award and whose work in our community is within the Noosa electorate.

Simply tell us who you would like to reward and we will do the rest.

Yours faithfully,

Sandy Bolton MP
Member for Noosa

What is Queensland Day?

On June 6, 1859 Queen Victoria gave approval for Queensland to become a separate colony in its own right and on the same day Order-In-Council gave Queensland its own constitution.

Now, June 6 is the day we celebrate Queensland's culture, heritage, people and places.
